

BONNIE BARNES BENEFIT CONCERT

Sunday, March 9, 2pm

at the San Diego Women's Club,
2557 3rd Avenue, San Diego, CA 92103

Bonnie Barnes is a seasoned performer with the San Diego Master Chorale. She will sing the music and share the history of Broadway lyricist and librettist, Dorothy Fields (1905 - 1974).

The concert will also feature Contemporary Art Song settings of poems by local poet Curran Jeffery, with music composed by Ricupples for Ms. Barnes.

Bonnie will be accompanied on the grand piano by Ricupples (aka Ric Cupples) who worked as dance musician during his early career, providing accompaniment for modern dance and ballet classes. He also composed music for numerous choreographers including George Willis, Jean Isaacs, Pat Sandback, as well as many other wonderful artists.

His recent projects have included computer compositions dealing with text elements and manipulated voice, environmental instrumental compositions and an interspecies project with a mockingbird.

Join us for a Wine and Cheese Reception following the concert.

Reservations can be made online at www.whmec.org or at 619 233-7963

All proceeds will benefit the work of the Women's History Museum and Educational Center.

Our mission is to educate and inspire present and future generations about the experiences and contributions of women by collecting, preserving and interpreting the evidence of that experience.
