

Dorothy Annette

a celebration of life

japanese brush on rice paper opening reception • friday, november 14, 2008 • 6-9 pm on exhibit november 14 to december 6 at the women's history museum

Join Us!

Dorothy Annette works in multiple art forms that include oil paintings, Japanese brush, lithography, clay and music. She recently completed extensive studies in Tuscany, Italy and the Michaelis School of Art at Cape Town University in South Africa.

Dorothy is the 2003 Local Hero in the Arts presented by KPBS Public Television and Union Bank of California. She served as a Commissioner for the City of San Diego Commission for Arts and Culture.

She is a co-founder of Ray at Night, a collaborative monthly "happening" of visual and performing arts.

multi-media
events
lectures
meet the artist

A Celebration of Life is the conclusion of eight years of my investigation into being a human being. It is an expression of my experiences of Life since the turn of the century.

The effects of Life depend on the attitude in which one takes on what is important to them. My miraculous Life and occasional sadness manifest itself in every loving line and splotch on the paper.

at the Women's History Museum & Educational Center for information call us at 619 233-7963 • www.whmec.org • 2323 broadway, ste. 107 • san diego, ca 92102 open tuesday thru saturday, noon to 4 pm corner of 23rd & broadway, east of downtown san diego in historic golden hill financial support provided by the city of san diego commission for arts & culture