

Academics in Motion: Women's History in the Community Speaker Summary

The Women's History Museum and Educational Center's team of academic speakers to give presentations and lead tours at the museum, or travel to your community meeting or classroom to educate, inspire and entertain. Enrich your curriculum or monthly event with our knowledgeable speakers on women's history!

Please call us to arrange a speaker to present to your group or organization.
(* = Speakers are bilingual.)

Sue Gonda, Ph.D.: Early and Modern American History, History of American Women, History of Women's Fashion, San Diego Women of Note

- Professor of History, Grossmont College

Susan Haber: First ladies of the Civil War, Amelia Earhart, Eleanor Roosevelt and women's issues, Three colonial women (e.g., Eliza Lucas Pickney, Abigail Adams, Mercy Otis Warren, Elizabeth Drinker, Jane Franklin Mecom), Women and the Civil Rights Movement

- Professor and Chair, Cuyamaca College History Department

Devon Hansen, Ph.D.: 20th Century American Women's History, Women and Popular Culture, Women in the Military

- Lecturer in History, Grossmont College

Gracia Molina de Pick*: Activism, Chicana Rights, Women's Rights, the 1977 Women's Rights Conference in Houston, TX

- Retired Mesa College Professor, Educator, Community Leader

Amalia Solorzano*: Harriet Tubman, Voting Rights, Women in Sports

- Former WHM board member, school teacher, community liaison

Judy Rosselli: American Women's History

- Former WHM board member, San Diego school teacher

Angela Feres: Women and Spirituality & Religion, Women and Witchcraft

- Lecturer in History, Grossmont College

Sarah Hurd: Women and Activism

- Community Artist, activist

Sarah Williams, Ph.D.: Women in Music, 16th & 17th Century European Women's History, Queen Elizabeth I, English Witch Trials, Salem Witch Trials, Women in Rock and Roll, Elizabethan English folklore/popular culture

- WHM Executive Director, Ph.D. music history